

RACE, ETHNICITY, and ARCHITECTURE

in the NATION'S CAPITAL

13th Biennial Symposium
February, 2021

Organized by the Latrobe Chapter, Society of Architectural Historians

Since 1967, the Latrobe Chapter of the Society of Architectural Historians has served as a forum for academic and professional conversations about architectural history. As part of these efforts, the Chapter has organized a biennial symposium focused on Washington, DC topics. The in-person 2020 symposium was rescheduled due to COVID-19 and will take place virtually over five evenings in February.

Tue, FEB 2, 2021 @ 7 PM EST

COMMUNITY ACTIVISM and SCHOLARSHIP in LAKELAND, College Park, MD

Chair: Mary Cobin Sies, University of Maryland

"A Brief History of Lakeland: African Americans in College Park, MD," Maxine Gross, Lakeland Community Heritage Project (LCHP), Violette Sharps-Jones, LCHP, and Cameron Thurston, LCHP

"Lakeland's Legacy: The Value of Black Land and Community in College Park, MD," Courtnie Thurston, Morgan State University

"The Lakeland Digital Archive: Technology for a Community-Engaged Approach to Sharing History and Heritage," Trevor Muñoz, Maryland Institute for Technology in the Humanities (MITH), UMD, Stephanie Sapienza, MITH, and Edward Hugh Summers, MITH

Tue, FEB 16, 2021 @ 7 PM EST

DC AREA POLITICS: from URBAN RENEWAL to GENTRIFICATION

Chair: Derek Hyra, American University

"Equitable Development (In)Action: Reimagining Downtown in the Washington, DC Suburbs," Willow S. Lung-Amam, University of Maryland

"From Urban Renewal to Urban Development: How the 1976 Bicentennial Changed the Nation's Capital," Lauren Pearlman, University of Florida

"Urban Renewal as Racial Conquest: The Ellen Wilson Dwellings on Capitol Hill," Johanna Bockman, George Mason University

Tue, FEB 9, 2021 @ 7 PM EST

HISTORIC PRESERVATION: PLACEMAKING and DISPLACEMENT

Chair: Lawana Holland-Moore, National Trust for Historic Preservation

"Wah Luck House and the Changing Demographics of Chinatown," Deane Madsen, Freelance Architectural Journalist

"Living Off the Grid: Generations of a Racial Enclave in LeDroit Park," Christine Henry, University of Mary Washington

"From Poor to Episcopalian: Displacement, Urban Violence, and Architectural Survey in Alexandria, Virginia," John H. Sprinkle, Jr., National Park Service

Tue, FEB 23, 2021 @ 7 PM EST

READING BUILDINGS and PLACES

Chair: Richard Longstreth, George Washington University

"Developing Racial and Ethnic Symbolic Capital through DC Houses of Worship: Sikh, Ukrainian Catholic, and African Methodist Episcopal Buildings," David R. Bains, Samford University

"Shantytown Palimpsest': Race, Place, and the Bonus Army in Anacostia," Jessica Larson, The Graduate Center, CUNY

"Mapping Spatial Violence: Dispossession, Public Housing, and 'New Communities,'" Sarah Jane Shoenfeld, Prologue DC

REGISTRATION

[Symposium Registration — SAH Latrobe Chapter
\(latrobechaptersah.org\)](https://latrobechaptersah.org)

Fri, FEB 26, 2021 @ 7 PM EST

KEYNOTE LECTURE

"'Shameful Shaw' and Narratives of Black Pathology"
Amber Wiley, Rutgers University